CONSUL GENERAL ROKURO MORI of Japan was the host on Monday afternoon for the most elaborate social function of the week and one of the most unique of the season. The affair, which was held at the Japanese consular residence on Nuuanu street, was given in honor of the visiting congressmen.

Official, military and civilian society was well represented during the reception hours, from 3 to 5. Governor Pinkham, Brigadier General Wiser, Captain George R. Clark, U. S. N., were among the guests. The federal and territorial officials, army, navy and marine corps, officers and members of the chamber of commerce and a great many other citizens were in attendance.

Consul General Mori received his guests, as they entered from the street, in the large living room of his residence. Here they were met by members of the Japanese colony and escorted to a great tent which had been erected on the lawn as a marquee. A buffet lunch was served in this tent. Several large and many small tables were used to seat the guests.

The congressional party sat at two large tables, together with some of those who had been official guests to the party during its stay. The Hawaiian band and a Hawaiian orchestra furnished music during the afternoon.

The central feature of the entertainment was an exhibition of dancing by pretty and daintily attired geisha girls. For the more occidental one-step and fox-trot, a Hawaiian orchestra played later, the occidental dances taking place in the consular residence.

The reception was marked by the hospitality, cordiality and perfection of detail with which the Japanese consular affairs are invariably conducted. Consul Mori met each guest personally during the afternoon. In spite of a heavy downpour of rain, the afternoon was most enjoyable and the visiting congressmen liked it thoroughly.

The guests included representative Honoluluans of civilian and official life in every branch. Among the invited guests were the governor and his cabinet, president and speaker, as well as members of house and senate, Brig. Gen. Wiser, U. S. A., and Capt. George R. Clark, U. S. N., a large number of territorial officials, Mayor Bern, the supervisors and city officials, federal officials, territorial and federal judiciary consular corps, officers of the various Oahu forts and departments and of Pearl Harbor and the marine corps. The captain of the Japanese cruiser Tokiwa and her officers were also asked.

Honolulu citizens and their wives invited included the following:

SOCIETY INTERESTED IN CANTRENS

SAN FRANCISCO One of the war time activities which is interesting society women is the establishment of canteens for the enlisted men. The San Francisco canteen in the Monadnock building is considered a model of its kind in the United States, and the women who organized it are being called on to help plan other clubs of this sort. At a meeting at the Burlingame Club the other day, the women of San Mateo County completed their organization for the opening of Camp Fremont Club at Menlo Park, where a beautiful home has been donated for that purpose.

Now all that remains to be done is for the government to stop playing Fast-in-the-Corner with the Camp Fremont idea. The only certain thing about the venture seems to be that if ever the camp really is secured there will be one of the most perfectly equipped canteens in the world at the disposal of the enlisted men. Mrs.
Lewis Hobart is the chairman of the Burlingame group which secured the place at Menlo Park, a home which will make an ideal clubhouse and six acres of ground, where all kinds of sports may be enjoyed.—San Francisco News-Letter.
